
The Lemkos

Who are Lemkos? What is their relationship to other Carpatho-Rusyns? How has their culture been influenced by the Greek Catholic and Orthodox churches? What has been their fate in the European homeland during the twentieth century? These and many other fascinating questions are addressed in the two collections of essays by scholars from Poland, Slovakia, the United States, and Canada.

1. The Lemkos of Poland:

Articles and Essays

Edited by Paul Best and Jaroslaw Moklak
New Haven, Connecticut and Cracow:
Carpatho-Slavic Study Group and
Historia Iagellonica Press, 2000
240 pages and 4 fold-out maps

24 chapters by various authors on the question of national identity, political life, language, literature, and religion.

List price $25.00

2. The Lemko Region, 1939-1947:

War, Occupation, and Deportation

Edited by Paul Best and Jaroslaw Moklak
New Haven, Connecticut and Cracow:
Carpatho-Slavic Study Group and
Historia Iagellonica Press, 2002
272 pages and 4 fold-out maps

26 chapters by various authors on the general impact of World War II and the immediate postwar years on the Lemko Region, including nationality policy and resettlement, resistance movements, the religious question, social life and education, the Rusyns of the Prešov Region, and archival sources and historiography.

List price $25.00

Both books if purchased together are available for the special price of $42.00

Order Form

To obtain your copies fill out this form and enclose a U.S. currency check or money order to:

C-RRC, Inc.
1026 Vermont Avenue
Glassport, PA 15045-1737

Please send me both books for $42.00 (U.S. postage included); check enclosed $ _____

Please send me The Lemkos of Poland for $25.00 (U.S. postage included) $ _____

Please send me The Lemko Region, 1939-1947 for $25.00 (U.S. postage included) $ _____

Be sure to add $12.00 for postage for orders to be sent outside of the U.S. $ _____

NAME _____

STREET _____

CITY _____ STATE _____ ZIP _____