
The People from Nowhere

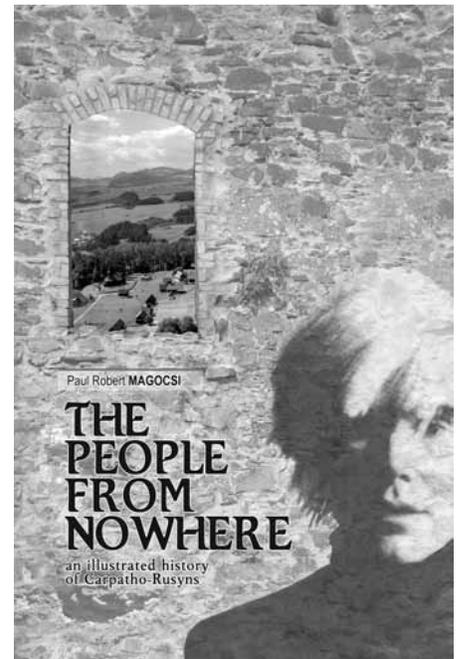

An Illustrated History of Carpatho-Rusyns

Paul Robert Magocsi

Finally, it's here. The book for which Rusyns and sympathizers of Rusyns in Europe and North America have long been waiting. An easy-to-read, colorfully illustrated story of the people whose most famous descendant, Andy Warhol, believed had come "from nowhere." Not only was Andy joking, he was wrong. Rusyns do come from somewhere. That "somewhere" is Carpathian Rus', and this book is the fascinating story of that land and its people—its heroes from the past and its vibrant youth of today.

The People From Nowhere features:

- A stunning selection of 183 full color and black-and white photographs that reveal the beauty of the Carpathian landscape, the Rusyn historical past, and its cultural richness
- An easy-to read text about the homeland of Rusyns in the heart of Europe and their place as a stateless people
- A story of Carpatho-Rusyns from the 5th to the late 20th centuries where they live today: Poland, Slovakia, Ukraine, Romania, Hungary, Serbia, and the United States
- Six color maps of frequently changing political boundaries
- An appended commentary with bibliographic sources
- A final chapter that relates the exciting tale of the present-day Rusyn national revival since 1989
- Available in Rusyn-language and Ukrainian-language editions on request

Uzhhorod, Ukraine
V. Padiak Publishers, 2006

clothbound, 120 pages
183 photographs, 6 maps, 2 tables
ISBN 966-7838-96-x

This is a book for you, for your children, and for your relatives and friends. Copies are yours for only $24.50.

Order Form

To obtain your copies, fill out this form and enclose a U.S. currency check or money order to:

C-RRC, Inc.
1026 Vermont Avenue
Glassport, PA 15045-1737

Be sure to add $12.00 for orders sent outside the U.S.

Please send me _____ copies; enclosed is my check for $ _____.

NAME _____

STREET _____

CITY _____ STATE _____ ZIP _____

The People from Nowhere