

The Carpatho-Rusyn Research Center Announces the Annual

Steven Chepa
Aleksander Dukhnovych Prize
in Rusyn Literature

An award of $1,000 is given each spring for an outstanding book of poetry or fiction published in the Rusyn language during the preceding five years.

The Chepa annual Dukhnovych Prize, awarded to promote the use of the Rusyn language in works that make a significant contribution to Rusyn literature, is funded by Steven Chepa of Toronto, Canada, and administered through the Carpatho-Rusyn Research Center.

Volumes of fiction and poetry published between 2005 and 2009 are eligible for the 2010 prize. Three copies of each book should be submitted by the author or publisher, accompanied by a brief biographical statement about the author. Deadline for submission is April 15, 2010.

The judging panel for the 2009 prize includes Professors Elaine Rusinko and Maria Pavlovszky (USA), and Valerij Kupka (Slovakia).
