

The Carpatho-Rusyn Research Center Announces the Annual

Steven Chepa
Aleksander Dukhnovych Prize
in Rusyn Literature

An award of $1,000 is given each spring for an outstanding book of poetry or fiction published in the Rusyn language during the preceding five years.

The Steven Chepa annual Dukhnovych Prize, awarded to promote the use of the Rusyn language in works that make a significant contribution to Rusyn literature, prose, poetry, children's literature, is funded by Steven Chepa of Toronto, Canada, and administered through the Carpatho-Rusyn Research Center.

Volumes of fiction and poetry published between 2010 and 2014 are eligible for the 2015 prize. Three copies of each book should be submitted by the author or publisher, accompanied by a brief biographical statement about the author. Deadline for submission is April 1, 2015.

The judging panel for the 2015 prize includes Patricia Krafcik and Bogdan Horbal (USA), and Olena Duc'-Fajfer (Poland).
